Sir,

Subject:- Remission of loan arrears - Mr. L. Krishna Murthy Naidu, Jodidar and Bhadra Colonist, Jodi Mandala Kunte, Bangalore North Taluk - recommends the - Adverting to your Memo No.C. 1616/41-42 dated 19-9-1941 asking for a report on the petition of Mr. L. Krishna Murthy naidu presented to the Chief Secretary to Government, I have the honour to state as follows:-

A loan of Rs.600/- repayable in 30 instalments commencing from the year 1907-1908 was sanctioned to one Mr. Lakshminaraniah of Kandalakunte on the security of 10 acres of land in the said Jodi village.

2. Subsequently on 31-10-1911, another loan of Rs.2,000/- for sinking 4 wells in S.Nos. 48 and 50, was sanctioned to the said Mr. Lakshminaraniah and his brother Mr. C. Venkatapathiah on the collateral security of the Jodi village, subject to the condition that the loan should be repaid in 20 instalments commencing from the year 1915-16 and that the 3 overdue instalments in respect of the first loan are repaid in full. Except for one well in S.No. 50, the loan-holders do not seem to have utilised the loan amount in full for the purpose intended. Two or three trial wells were, however, sunk by them and they seem to have failed.

3. Subsequently, Mr. L. Krishna Moorthy Naidu, the petitioner came into possession of the Jodi village and on his prayer for the grant of a loan of Rs.6,000/- for modern agricultural equipment for his Jodi village, a loan of Rs.2,000/- was sanctioned to him on 31-3-1928, on condition that the previous loan should be continued to be repaid as originally agreed. This loan was to be repaid in 10 instalments and the petitioner is seen to have drawn only a sum of Rs.1,700/- against a loan of Rs.2,000/- sanctioned to him.

4. On a representation that the previous loans may be remitted etc., Government, in their order No.R.8317/R.M. 10-28-60 dated 18-4-1929 declined to grant the concession prayed for, as no good case was made out for remission. Again, a similar representation from the petitioner is seen to have been turned down by Government in their order No.R. 7066/R.M. 10-28-12 dated 2-6-1930. On a further representation from the loan-holder, Government issued him an endorsement on 20-2-1931 that they saw no grounds for reconsidering the orders already passed. They were, however, pleased to postpone for 2 years the instalments recoverable on account of the 2 previous loans:

5. The position of the 3 loan accounts referred to above is as follows at present:-

Loan of Rs.600/- sanctioned in 1907-08:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Total amount of annuity due | .. | Rs. 918 | 7 0 |
| Penal interest | .. | 32 | 4 10 |
| Total | .. | 950 | 11 10 |
| Amount repaid | .. | 950 | 11 10 |
| Balance | .. | - | |

Loan of Rs.2,000/- sanctioned in 1911-12.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Total amount of annuity due | .. | 3464 | 4 4 |
| Penal interest | .. | 97 | 7 4 |
| Total | .. | 3561 | 11 8 |
| Total amount paid | .. | 3560 | 11 8 |
| Balance | .. | 1 | 0 0 |

Loan of Rs.1,700/- of 1927-28.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Total amount of annuity due till 1940-41 | .. | 2,169 | 0 | 0 |
| Penal interest | .. | 58 | 1 | 7 |
| Total | .. | 2,227 | 1 | 7 |
| Amount repaid | .. | 1,142 | 14 | 7 |
| Amount overdue | .. | 1,084 | 3 | 0 |

6. Thus, towards a total loan of Rs.4,300/- sanctioned, a sum of Rs.5,654-6-1 is repaid till now and a sum of Rs.1084-3-0 is overdue together with a sum of Rs.542-4-0 being the 3 annuities due hereafter in respect of the last loan.

7. The fact that the petitioner has sustained heavy losses is manifest from the records.

8. Since the first two loans have been completely discharged except for Re.1/- due in respect of the second loan, andc out of the 3rd loan of Rs.1,700/- (principal), the petitioner has paid a sum of Rs.1,142/-, I recommend that this loan account may be ordered to be closed, after recovering from him a sum of Rs.558/- (Rs.1700-Rs.1142/-) remitting all interest and penal interest due up-to-date, as an exceptionally special case in view of the hard circumstances, represented by the petitioner and in consideration of the repayments to the extent of Rs.5654-6-1 already made, against an actual loan of Rs.4,300/- drawn by the petitioner and his predecessors in title. By recovering a further sum of Rs.558/- as proposed above, the total repayment will be Rs.6,212-6-1 as against the actual loan of Rs.4300/- taken.

9. The petitioner's contention that some of the payments made by him have been adjusted towards the old loans taken by his predecessors in title cannot be accepted in the absence of satisfactory proof. Mr. Krishna Murthy Naidu is not in a position to substantiate this by producing the necessary vouchers or receipts for verification. Even if this statement is true, the adjustment so made will be in order, as the same estate now secured for the present loan was the security for the previous loans also, and was liable to be proceeded against, and as the last loan was sanctioned to him on condition that the previous loan should be continued to be repaid as agreed.

10. The connected file of vernacular records is enclosed for favour of reference.

I have the honour to be,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant,
